

SASAGIRIAN Calligraphy

Instructor Profile

Isao Nakasone (Calligraphy Name: Koho)

Reside in Uruma City

[Career History]

- 1987 Became a calligraphy master of Tokyo Shoinkai, an organization which runs calligraphy classes
- 1989 Was in charge of Japanese calligraphy used in the Columbia Pictures film "The Karate Kid" (2010)
- 1990 Received a special promotion at Tokyo International Calligraphy Exhibition
- 1993 Taught calligraphy at Pala Alto High School in San Francisco, USA (short term)
- 2004 Taught calligraphy at Castilleja High School in San Francisco, USA (for ten years)
- 2011 Taught calligraphy at Graduate School of Middlebury Collage in San Francisco, USA (for three years)
- 2015 Returned to Okinawa and held calligraphy exhibitions at Okinawa Bank, etc.
- 2019 Gave lectures about his thirty-years American life and taught calligraphy at several high schools in Okinawa
Became a calligraphy instructor at Sasagirian
- 2020 Performed calligraphy and was in charge of calligraphy experience classes at a new year event at Halekulani Okinawa
- 2025 In charge of calligraphy experience classes at a new year event at Halekurani Okinawa